

Gags! Grimaces! Guffaws!

Silent Movie Night

at the Julia L. Butterfield Library

By Deb Lucke

May 18

STARRING librarian/projectionist Luanne Morse, who has always loved silent movies and has been curating this series for eleven years...

...and accompanist Gary Brown, the man who captures the drama of the film musically...

...supported by a parade of characters straight out of central casting--oh, wait! That's the audience!

THE EVENING'S MOVIES WERE "THE SCARECROW," "PUTTING PANTS ON PHILIP," AND "THE RINK."

In case you missed it, here's what got the guffaws.

Stan Laurel in The-kilt-over-a-subway-grate gag.

Buster Keaton in
The-escape-from-the-dog-up-a-ladder
gag.

Oops!

Luke the dog
↓

Buster Keaton in
The-quickest-way-over-the-fence gag.

Oliver Hardy
in The-pride-goeth-before-a-fall-in-thepuddle gag...

1.

2.

Charlie Chaplin in The-Roller-skate-in-the-Keister gag.

Eric Campbell's Keister

gr.
imace
B
L
A M

...combined with the Sound-effect-of-aplop-made-by-alollipop gag.

Oh, wait! That's the audience again.

