

MISS!

The 13th Annual Swearing-when-hitting-a-bad-shot, Strut-ting-when-hitting-a-good-one, Brewski-slurping, Red Bull-slamming, Stogie-smoking, all-for-a-good- cause Golf Tournament.

By DeLo Bucke

margaritas ↑

A confident bird flies under the ball

The May 31st event at the Southern Dutchess Country Club was all about fun and fundraising. The money raised goes to the Beacon Policemen's Benevolent Association. From there, much of it makes its way back into the community through PBA donations and scholarships.

Sgt. Walden just prior to his happy dance.

SPLASH

65 golfers participated: Beacon policemen, Poughkeepsie and Newburgh policemen, local firemen, and local businessmen. Hence, the manliness.

WHACK

It was a shotgun start with foursomes on every hole. Each team drove from the longest drive or shot. Contests were held for "Longest Drive" and "Closest to the Pin." On the 5th hole, you had an opportunity to bet that you could land on the green in one shot.

Despite the heated competition, several golfers stopped and took in the beauty of the day.

I really want to touch

stupido ttipoco

The golf carts had their own rivalry going as to which musical style would dominate.

I BOGEYED THE 9TH HOLE.

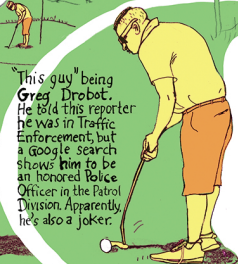

Dave Raymond

The Raymond/McMillen/Hoer/Chawin team has won this tournament 4 out of the last 5 years.

THIS GUY HASN'T MISSED A PUTT ALL DAY!

"This guy" being Greg Drobot. He told this reporter he was in Traffic Enforcement, but a Google search shows him to be an honored Police Officer in the Patrol Division. Apparently, he's also a joker.

But 2019 was different.

He and his fellow teammates from the Town of Poughkeepsie Police wear.

CLAP, CLAP

*Swear words may not be exact. Jason Turner won the "Longest Drive". Damon Angelo was "Closest to the Pin". Kurt McMillen got on the green in one, but left his winnings in the pot. ©deLobucke201