2020 Ted Greene Music Education Scholarship

February 2020

Guidance Department,

The Mid-Hudson Camerata Chorale is a not-for-profit, nonsectarian community ensemble whose membership is drawn from over 20 Hudson Valley communities. We rehearse weekly and present varied programs of sacred and secular classics by old masters and contemporary composers. Camerata Chorale is offering the 2020 Ted Greene Music Education Scholarship in the amount of $1000 to an area graduating senior committed to a college major in music or music education.

We encourage you to invite your students to apply. Please emphasize the importance of a complete application with supporting documents. Please feel free to photocopy the application form.

In reviewing applications we are looking for:

- At least one year of high school choral experience
- Pursuit of a career in music (including non-choral) or music education
- Acceptance to a college
- Excellence in NYSSMA scores (choral or instrumental)
- An 80+ academic average
- Community performance outside of school
- Well written essay
- High personal drive

The deadline for application is May 1, 2020. The winning student will be invited to attend the Camerata Chorale annual dinner in June where he or she will be presented with the scholarship award.

Thank you for your assistance. If you have any questions regarding this scholarship application or would like more information about Camerata Chorale you can visit our website at www.camerata-chorale.org or call me at 845-485-8720.

Sincerely,

Kathy Gregory
