Dear Friends,

We wanted to have a place where we kids could do something together without being in the same place. This is our first issue and it is AWESOME SAUCE!

I hope you enjoy it and share it with your friends and family.

Any kids are welcome to send in an article, artwork or anything they want to include. Email us at beaconkidstimes@gmail.com to join the mailing list and/or send in a contribution.

Your friend,

Lucas

COMIC BOOK REVIEW

by Hazel

Scooby-Doo Where Are You? (Number 102)

There are two stories in Scooby Doo where are you? The first one is called Pet-Trified. The story is about a dog park being vandalized and dogs were running away because of a monster called the siren. A siren is a mythological creature from Greece whose singing lures unwary sailors onto rocks. It goes on to say that dogs were being microchipped and not being taken to that dog park any more so the park ranger might have to close it down. This is a mystery comic book. The main characters in this story are Velma, Daphne, Fred, Shaggy, Scooby Doo, the park ranger, and the siren. The main idea of this story is to catch the siren. What I liked about the story is that it is funny and silly and there's a twist because you might think it is one person but it might be the other. I like all of it. I don't have a part that I don't like.

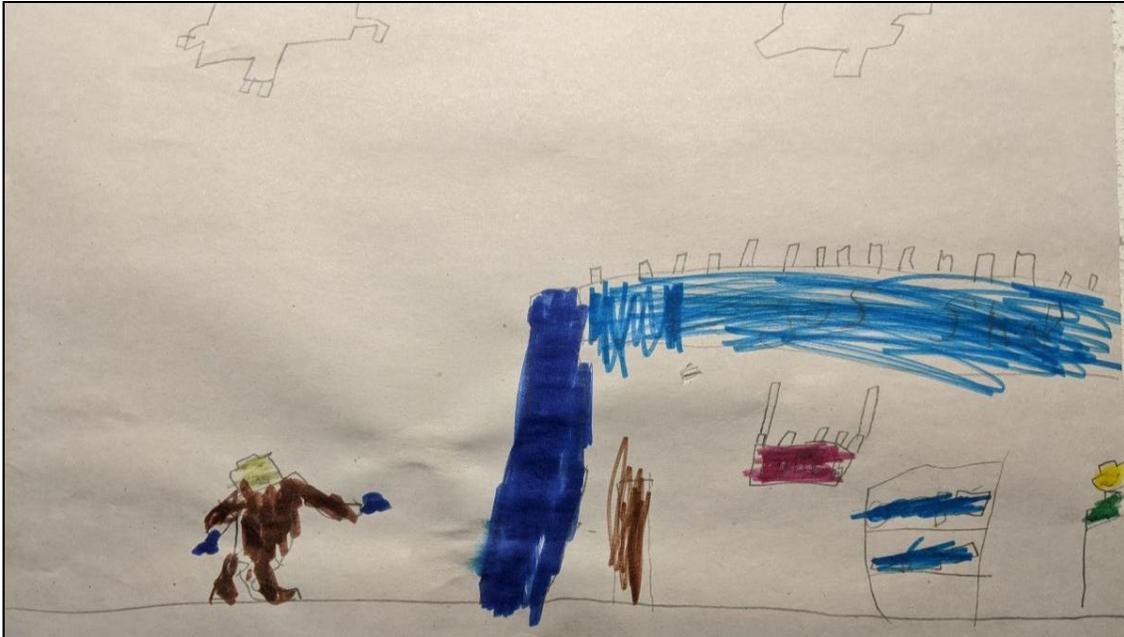

Like I said there are two stories. The second story is called Sunday in the park with Scooby! It's about a walk in the park with three mysteries in it, oolala! The first story is about a boy that lost his baseball. The second story is about a lost girl. And the third story is about a hotdog man. The main characters in this story are Shaggy, Scooby, the little girl, the little boy, and the hot dog man. There are three different main ideas since there are three mysteries. The first main idea is about finding a ball, the second idea is to find a lost girl, and the third one was to catch a thief. In the story I liked that it was about food so you get hungry and that there wasn't Velma, Daphne, and Fred in this one. Only Shaggy, and Scooby. There isn't a part that I don't like in this story. This is my personal favorite story! I would give this book five stars because it is a really quick read, with very funny characters, the mystery keeps it interesting and the drawings are very detailed.

VIDEO GAME REVIEW

by Silas

Mope.io

Mope.io is a video game where you try to level up as much as you can, until your parents tell you to stop. When your parents tell you to stop and you turn your electronic off the game puts you back to the first level. Sad.

The levels in the game are animals. The levels you start at are desert rat, which is my favorite animal. Desert rat is a desert animal. There's mouse, mouse is a grass animal. There's shrimp, shrimp is a water animal. And there is chipmunk, chipmunk is an arctic animal.

So when you start you pick a first level animal. The first levels can only eat one food in that animals area that you pick. However you can move your animal to a different area and eat the first level food in that area.

How to level up is to eat food scattered around the area that is light green. You can also eat other animals that have a light green circle around them. Once you get enough XP you level up. Every higher level you get to needs more XP. XP is food in the game. Every different type of food has a different amount of XP.

The highest level I've gotten to is third from last. The levels of that are Pterodactyl, which is a desert animal, Kraken and King Crab, which are water animals, T-Rex and Dragon, are grass animals, Yeti, which is an arctic animal and Phoenix, which is a lava animal. Only certain animals are lava animals. My favorite level that I've gotten to is Pterodactyl. My favorite level that I haven't gotten to besides the last level is Giant Scorpion. The last level is King Dragon. Every level has a power.

PARENT NOTE: This game has no violence so of course your children can play this.

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

by Fiona

The Amazing Outdoors

It is going to be a really wacky year. The weather has already started off on a wrong note. In winter it was warmer, and now when it's springtime, we have snow. This might affect how the plants and animals react. While I watch the snow fall, I'm also looking at blooming flowers. I bet all the squirrels and other animals that usually come out during this time are totally confused. But, on the other hand, staying at home a lot right now because of the coronavirus helps the situations like global warming, because no one is getting in vehicles and driving around that much.

I'm glad I can go outside during these harsh times. I bet if I couldn't go outside I would get a little (a lot) stir crazy. I'm glad I can go outside because I'm getting a little annoyed at the situation at hand. When I'm outside it feels like a calm place to just breathe and feel your feelings.

I'm just feeling a little overwhelmed about the situation at hand.

WEATHER REPORT

By Daley

THURSDAY

Partly sunny, with a high of 57 degrees and a low of 41 degrees.

You should wear a t-shirt, but bring a light coat just in case! You can ride on your bike, have a social distance hike outside, or play in your backyard!

FRIDAY

Rainy, with a high of 54 degrees and a low of 33 degrees.

Wear a raincoat, and take out your umbrellas. Splash in the puddles, or stay inside and play a game.

SATURDAY

It's going to be cloudy and rainy, with a high of 54 degrees and a low of 44 degrees.

You should wear a raincoat, again. You could draw or write a story about rain.

SUNDAY

More rain, high of 56 degrees and a low of 44 degrees.

Take out your umbrellas, now we can hope for sunny weather this whole rest of the week. Build a fort out of pillows or make a time machine out of cardboard!

MONDAY

Rainy again, with a high of 56 degrees and a low of 44 degrees.

Stay under a roof or a shelter. Take a nap.
